Lambert went to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals this morning and asked for a temporary injunction against Secretary of Navy Wilbur to prevent him carrying out the plan to sink the Washington.

The government contends that the scrapping of the big ship, on which thirty-five million dollars has already been spent, was decreed by the Washington disarmament conference and that the government has no choice in the matter.

Rum runners are turning their attention from liquor to Chinese smuggling because of the increasing hazards of the former and the profit to be made in the latter.

How Chinese City Widens Streets

Shanghai, China, Nov. 18.—Several months of propaganda work by the Chinese Red Cross, Young Men's Club and missionary organizations to have the city of Fowchow, in Szechuen province, widen the ancient streets proved woefully unsuccessful recently, and the workers were on the verge of abandoning their efforts. One night fire broke out in a temple, and within a few hours several of the principal streets were in ruins. Renewed vigor on the part of the "City Beautiful" workers has since resulted in the construction of new buildings a few feet farther back, so that the streets, once impossible to navigate without fighting your way through on foot, can now be negotiated in a rikisha.

$438 IS REPORTED THIS AFTERNOON

ANNUAL RED CROSS ROLL CALL IN CITY TODAY.

INCREASE OVER 1924

Some Ex-Service Men Unable to Help Today Will Solicit Through The City Tomorrow.

Four hundred and thirty-eight dollars was taken out in 1925 American Red Cross memberships in Maryville this morning.

Ex-service men under the chairman, John G. Mutz, were soliciting the city all day, but the greater number of the men were out this morning. All the reports on 1925 memberships collected today were not in at press time so it is expected that the total contributed by Maryville will be swelled by the time all the reports are in tonight.

Last year on the day when the city was solicited for Red Cross memberships a little more than four hundred dollars was reported in the afternoon, so the collections today compare even more favorably than a year ago.

The ex-service men have reported they did not find a large number of residents at home when they called, so it will probably be necessary to have a clean-up day. Tomorrow some ex-service men that signified their intentions of aiding in getting Red Cross memberships for 1925, will go out through the city as it was impossible for some to help today.

When all the collections are reported tomorrow from the city, and the contributions for memberships from the College and schools, the total this year will undoubtedly be larger than in 1923.

If there are any who are not seen by the ex-service men today they can leave their contributions at the Red Cross rooms in the Michau building.

The contributions today ranged from $1 to $25, but the general run was $1, which is the regulation Red Cross membership.

Democrats Will Control Legislature

On Joint Ballot the Democratic Majority Will Be Ten Votes

Jefferson City, Nov. 18—The Missouri legislature will again be controlled by the Democratic party. This is evident upon the face of complete although unofficial returns compiled by Charles W. Fear, publication clerk in the department of state.

The Democrats will have twenty-three members and the Republicans eleven in the senate. In the house the Republicans will control by the scant majority of two votes. On joint ballot the Democratic majority will be ten votes. Compilation of the official returns has not yet begun but the result is not expected to change materially Mr. Fear's figures.

With the Democrats having the balance of power on joint ballot the chance of a contest over the governorship, to which Sam A. Baker of Jefferson City, Republican, apparently has been elected, is greatly strengthened.

Should Dr. A. W. Nelson, defeated Democratic candidate, contest Mr. Baker's election, the Republicans threaten to contest the election of several Democratic candidates for representative who apparently are elected only by slight majorities. In these cases the legislature must hear both contestants and canvass the returns. History does not recall an instance, however, where a minority party candidate was seated.

Won't Contest "Ma" Ferguson's Election

MEETS MAYSVILLE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

BOARD CONTROL MEETS AT ST. JOSEPH TODAY.

SUMMA IS INELIGIBLE

Maryville and Maysville to Play for Championship of District Either on Friday or Saturday.

(Special to Democrat-Forum).

St. Joseph, Nov. 18.—The Stanberry High School football team was declared ineligible to compete for the championship of Northwest Missouri because of the playing of Leland Summa, hight halfback, who was also declared ineligible because of playing with and against professional baseball teams, it was decided at a meeting of the board of control of the Northwest Missouri Athletic Association, held at the Hotel Robidoux, St. Joseph, this afternoon.

The board also passed a resolution declaring that Princeton used poor sportsmanship in protesting after nearly an entire game had been played with the Stanberry team.

The superintendent, principal and coach of the Stanberry team were not blamed for the playing of the ineligible man and Stanberry was reinstated in the association in good standing.

The Princeton High School forfeited its right to play in the semi-finals and therefore Maryville and Maysville will play for the championship of Northwest Missouri either Friday or Saturday of this week.

L. E. Ziegler, representing Maryville, withdrew from the conference regarding the date and place of the championship game, as he was an interested party in the controversy. This matter will be decided this afternoon but no decision had been made at press time.

In addition to Mr. Ziegler, Earl Duncan of Albany, vice-president, O. G. Sanford of Trenton, and U. L. Riley of Maitland were present at the meeting this afternoon.

TO ARREST RAIDERS ON WATER SUPPLY

RANCHERS DEFY INJUNCTION ISSUED YESTERDAY.

LOSS $15,000 DAILY

Complaint of City of Los Angeles States That 290 Cubic Feet Per Second Are Wasted.

Independence, Calif., Nov. 18.—Warrants for the arrest of the men who Sunday seized the flood gates of the Los Angeles aqueduct may be issued today, officials of Inyo County declared.

The raiders have refused to obey the injunction issued late yesterday ordering them from the aqueduct and if they continue to defy the law, their arrest will be ordered, authorities declared.

Independence, Cal., Nov. 18.—Late yesterday Judge Dohy of the superior court of Inyo county granted an application by the city of Los Angeles for a temporary order to restrain Owens valley ranchers from interfering with the Los Angeles aqueduct. Sheriff Collins of Inyo county left at once for Long Pine to serve the order on the small army of ranchers there, which Sunday seized and opened the Alabama waste gates. The city's complaint states that the waste of water is 290 cubic feet per second and that the approximate loss is $15,000 daily. The order is returnable next Monday, Nov. 24.

The only names mentioned in the document are those of Mark Q. Waterson and W. R. McCarthy, prominent ranchers. All the others, upwards of 100 in number, come under the category of "John Doe."

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY.

STILL SUPERSTITIOUS.

A news dispatch notes that the Kern County (Calif.) Cattlemen's and Sheepmen's Association has contracted with a rainmaker for an inch and a half of rain, to be delivered between November 20 and December 20, for which $4,000 is to be paid.

While the terms of the contract are not given in detail, it would seem that the rainmaker has the long end of the bargain unless he is penalized in case of failure. Perhaps he is required to execute some hocus-pocus under the semblance of doing something to earn his money, but we imagine that the chief labor in which he'll engage will consist in hoping that nature will be kind and send along the showers in a land where moisture is too often withheld. Should the rain fall in sufficient quantity the rainmaker's purse will be replenished to the extent of a neat sum whether he exerts any influence on the situation.

A few years ago professional rainmakers had quite a vogue in some arid sections, but the country has yet to hear that any of them ever was successful in producing the desired moisture. The rain may have fallen, but that of itself would not be proof of their instrumentality—rather of their good luck in having nature coincide with their schemes of buncoing some credulous people out of good coin. Not all Americans have emerged from superstition if it is believed that man is able by incantations to coax from the sky that which nature withholds by law.

GOOD ROADS TO PUT TOWNS TO A TEST

WILL BE SURVIVAL OF FITTEST WITH COMING HARD ROADS.

ADVERTISING IS THE KEY

Stores Must Keep Pace With Advance Of Modernity, Be Better Equipped and Advertise.

Macon, Mo., Nov. 18—"With the coming of the hard road era in Missouri will come a problem of life and death to a great many towns of Missouri, unless their citizenship is far-seeing enough to prepare for the new order that will follow real highways," said Web M. Rubey, former state senator and who in his ninety active years has seen the Overland trail, the stage coach, the steamboat and the railroad development from the '50s down to date.

"It has been the way of the farmer for a great many years to trade at 'his' town, meaning the one closest to him," explained Mr. Rubey. "He would take his produce there and bring back his supplies. On the books of the firm he was a regular—a man whose trade could be calculated on year after year. His good will was an important asset to 'his' store. He never thought of going anywhere else.

Merchants Knew Their Trade

"Time was when on market day, generally Saturday, every lot in towns like Hannibal, Kirksville, Macon, Brookfield and Moberly would be packed close with teams, and the livery barns full—indicating trading folks from the surrounding country. Each town had its own circle of customers who would come in to do their trading in 'our town' as a matter of course. They never thought of driving thirty or forty miles to some other place, and the merchant, whether he advertised much or not, knew he could count on his share of the trade tributary to his town.

"The coming of the motor car changed the situation some. When the roads are in condition for a long trip the farmer and his family may decide to pass the old home town and journey into a new trading field. But this has not been the regular practice, because rains are more or less frequent and the dirt roads are a more or less unknown problem for long distance travel.

"But when the farmer, by traveling a few miles, can reach a hard-surfaced road that will make it a sure bet of his getting back in his car, rain or shine, the home town will not be limited by proximity, but where he can get, as he thinks, the best service.

More Towns to Be Rivals

"For instance, with a concrete road covering the thirty-five miles between Macon and Brookfield, or the twenty-two miles to Moberly, those towns instantly become rivals for the trade. If a farmer living on the highways near Brookfield thinks he can get a better line of supplies at Macon the thirty miles extra travel distance will mean nothing to him in the way of extra cost and time. It will be practically as easy to go to one place as the other. The same rule obtains, of course, to the farmer living near Macon who may be apprised by advertising that he can come nearer getting what he wants at Brookfield.

"The merchants of the towns now well known will have to plan for business on a larger scale than they ever did before, or they will go down. All the towns on the hard-surfaced highways will be competitors, because all the farmers living on or adjacent to them will be potential customers.

"I'm not a merchant, but I've observed the changing conditions in this state due to changes in transportation methods for sixty years or better. Missouri is full of 'lost towns' towns busy and prosperous and well known when I was a boy. I thought they'd grow up into great cities. Instead they were killed by competition with towns that in many cases were only a few miles away, and were sneered at as hamlets. But these hamlets had live men in them who knew what the people wanted, and who kept ahead of the times.

Advertising is the Key.

"But advertising as a town booster was hardly known then. The man who advertised extensively was a Yankee, a man who tooted his own horn, and an object of suspicion. Today advertising is the key that unlocks the treasure house, and makes a town grow large and important, and I'm thinking that it's going to be a big factor when these hard roads are in commission.

"The women folks are the ones who are the most discriminating judges as to the best place to trade. They know all about the various characters of garments for the whole household and what they ought to cost. And they are going to the towns where their money will go farthest, considering quality of goods. They'll not stop at the county line, but keep on going until they reach the store that has what they want.

"I think the result will be larger and better-equipped stores, and a character of service that admits of no criticism. New methods of business will meet the new facility of travel, and as a whole our towns will be better, busier and more prosperous."

New High Gasoline Consumption Record

THE Bureau of Mines (Washington, D.C.) places the domestic consumption of gasoline for August, 1924, at 819,467,892 gallons, an increase over July consumption of 22,001,302 gallons and the highest monthly consumption of gasoline ever reached in the United States.

Notwithstanding this unusual demand, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been able to keep the motorist of the Middle West constantly supplied with gasoline. This is the direct result of strict economy in production and the uninterrupted operation of a modern system of distribution.

The new high gasoline consumption record of August tells of hundreds of small business organizations made efficient by means of the automobile and an abundance of standard quality gasoline. It tells of thousands of families who have enjoyed healthful outings at minimum cost. It tells of hundreds of thousands of city children benefited by country air, because motor transportation carried them into open spaces at a trifling charge.

Giving people what they want, at a price they easily can afford to pay, is in itself a valuable service. This service is rendered to society by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Few of the hundreds of thousands of people who profit daily by the abundance and the wide distribution of gasoline, consider the intricate industrial problems solved before this service could be rendered. They are apt to think of gasoline as yielded freely by nature; a generous, unceasing gift to man.

On the contrary, no matter how freely crude oil is produced by nature, without the aid of science it does not yield the tremendous quantities of gasoline needed to supply the demand.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) by originating processes which vastly increase the percentage of gasoline recovered from crude oil, serves mankind by helping to keep the supply equal to the demand. By devising a comprehensive distribution system and maintaining it in the face of every obstacle, this Company is able to make gasoline available to millions who could not afford to have the fuel shipped to them individually. Gasoline is as accessible to the farmers of the Middle West as it is to the city dweller.

Somerville Preparing for Demonstrations

Returns From State Teachers Meeting—Is Succeeded as Head Rural Department By a Woman.

Leslie G. Somerville, county superintendent of schools, is back at his office again after attending the state teachers association at Kansas City. Mr. Somerville is now planning for the demonstration schools that will be conducted in this county in the next two weeks.

For two years Mr. Somerville was in charge of the rural department of the state teachers meetings. This year, however, the county superintendent of Mississippi County was elected to succeed him.

Mr. Somerville was of the opinion that the last teachers meeting was the best ever held and in speaking of the Nodaway County people that spoke, especially mentioned the address delivered by Roy Lippman, president of the county Farm Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lowry of Grant City are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. J. S. Clark, and his mother, Mrs. B. F. Lowry, who is seriously ill at the Clark home. Mrs. Lowry's condition remains unchanged.

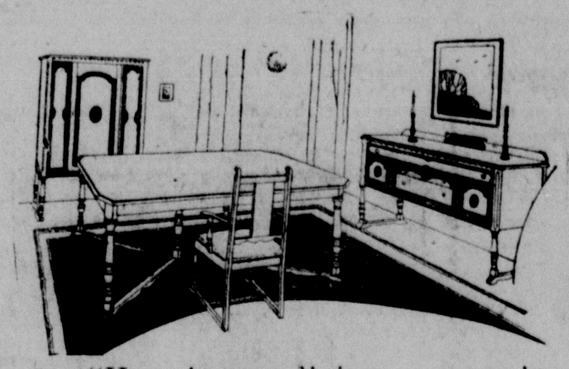
"Where Your Patronage Is Appreciated"



'How is it going to look'

"How is our dining room going to look for Thanksgiving and the coming holidays?"

That is the question being asked right now in many families.

It is all a question of how YOU WANT your dining room to look. As long as it is possible to avail yourself of a credit service that enables you to pay in 30 to 60 days, or in six months or twelve months, why not get that new suite, or rug or single piece, or whatever it may be that is needed to bring your dining room furnishings up to date?

We never had a finer showing of dining room furniture or dining room rugs than we have right now. And, prices have not been so reasonable for years.

Take a good survey of your dining room, and than take a walk through our displays. We believe you're sure to find just what you want here.

P. S. Don't forget that you can trade in your no-longer-wanted dining room furniture.

Rheumatism

"Yes! it's all gone."

DO NOT close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. You can get rid of your rheumatism by building up your blood power. It is a fact that rheumatism means "blood poverty." It is a fact with the increase of red cells in your blood, impurities are destroyed. It is a fact that S.S.S. will help Nature build these red-blood-cells! S.S.S. is one of the most powerful blood cleansers in existence. Its results in thousands of rheumatic cases have been nothing short of amazing! The medicinal ingredients of S.S.S. are purely vegetable. This is very important to remember! What can be more inspiring, more wonderful than to see the shackles of pain released from your struggling body, swellings, lingering pains, stiffness of joints and muscles all disappear; your stomach made strong; your face pink with the old sweetheart glow, your blood enriched and your cheeks more plump as they used to be. You can do it! Take S.S.S., the great destroyer of rheumatic impurities.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

He's Going to Fish Until He Is Good and Tired

"I'm going fishing the day after I get out of this office and fish until I'm tired," so said Augustus Romasser this morning, deputy sheriff for the last four years.

Mr. Romasser said that he was through with the work in the sheriff's office, the day that the present sheriff, Steve Roach's term expires and the sheriff-elect, L. B. Campbell goes into office, which is January 1.

However, Mr. Romasser will continue to be in the public eye, as he is a city commissioner, who went into office a year ago last April and which term does not expire until April, 1925.

If Mr. Romasser goes fishing and stays until he gets "good and tired of it" he may be gone for several months, as last summer he went up into Northern Minnesota on a fishing trip and was away a month, coming back because official duties required his presence here.

Advice might be given to Mr. Romasser to take his high powered rifle along to kill the polar bears that might pester him while he is fishing through the ice, and also to furnish him with something to eat.

PARIS STYLE HINTS.
By ALICE LANGELIER.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

Paris, Nov. 18.—Clothes to match the Autumn tints are being worn on the boulevards these frosty days. Dame Fashion has ordered bright things for women this year.

Colors are such that they seem like reflections from the Autumn woods. Even black is gay this season—trimmed with thin red lines or a band of mosiac of different kinds and colors of fur. A black satin afternoon dress is slashed with cerise, and a black georgette evening coat is bordered with rose leaves, in shaded pinks, and worn over a black gown, with painted roses.

Raspberry, beige and brown, with orange in one piece of material, makes an amusing combination for sports costumes, which promise to be particularly gay this Winter. Dull green, with gray, rust and yellow, makes a charming skating costume that comes from Lucile. The coat is almost always made of one major color and the dress of another.

Mauve is the favorite shade of one of the largest designers. There are some delightful evening dresses and capes in mauve and silver, with flowers in deeper shades. Another mauve scheme is in velvet, white fur, gold lace and just a touch of brilliant Chinese embroidery.

Evening dresses are especially brilliant. A cerise crepe de Chine frock has a circular skirt covered with narrow, pleated ruffles; and a periwinkle blue crepe gown is embroidered in silver. Gold embroideries, gold beading and gold brocades are extremely popular. Chantal is showing a frock in gold tulle, embroidered in many shades of green and lavender. One of her special features is the long scarf of color on a black and white gown. It flows from the shoulders quite straight and narrow, like a little cloud.

White Cross Sunday to Be Observed at Elmo

By Edgar O. Wells, Minister.

Next Sunday, November 23, will be American White Cross Sunday, at which time our Methodism will bring the interests of our hospital interests all over the United States will be represented by our pastors, and an offering will be taken for them. Can you think of anything that could be better represent the work of our Master, when he was here upon earth than this? He said heal the sick. * * * Freely ye have received, freely give," and our Missouri Methodist hospital St. Joseph, Mo., is doing this very work, and while it is under the auspices of our church, it is in no sense whatever, sectarian. So that we may surely say, this is a work in which everybody may bear a part. The theme of the sermon will be, "One Day of Healing in the Life of Jesus."

Remember, that the evening service hour is now 7 p. m. and there will be fifteen minutes of song preceding the sermon, the theme of which will be, "Builders of Life for Eternity." There were twenty-five or thirty young people in our congregations last Sunday, and the night sermon will be especially addressed to them. When a church loses the young life out of its pews, it is practically dead, and its doors will close sooner or later, and when its membership pays more attention to the number of its automobiles than it does to its baby carriages, it will soon have neither the one or the other in sight from its windows. Fathers and mothers, your babies and little children are in the kingdom, and there entitled to baptism, and if you want them baptised by either form, we will gladly dedicate them to Christ, by putting His mark of holiness upon them.

OBITUARY.

Jay Titus was born in Richland County, Wis., Oct. 29, 1861, and departed this life at his home three miles southeast of Arkoe, Mo., Nov. 14, 1924, age 63 years. He came to Nodaway County from his native state in 1869, and had made his home here ever since. He was an unmarried man. It was a great surprise to the entire neighborhood of the sudden death of the deceased, as he had been looked upon a rugged, robust man of excellent health, and if he ever complained no one seemed to know it. He was among the early pioneers of the country, and was looked upon as a good clean moral citizen of good repute. No one ever appealed to Jay Titus in vain, if they were needy. He supported every good cause. In all of his dealings he exercised the most conscientious scruples. He was a man among men, an affectionate brother, and a congenial neighbor. Besides his sister, Mrs. F. E. Blauvelt, Barnard, Mo., he leaves to mourn, one brother, Lee Titus, Ashton, S. D., three nieces and six nephews, besides other relatives, as well as a host of friends. The funeral service was conducted from the Arkoe Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, Nov. 16, at 2:30, in the presence of a large discourse of relatives and friends. Rev. Arthur S. Olsen, a former pastor of Grant City, Mo., conducted the service. Interment was in the Maryville cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Geo. and Wm. Chambers, John Bloom, Ret Corrough, and Harry and Cole Yiesley. The quartet composed of Mrs. Dwight Swinford, J. E. Wyatt, and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Corrough, sang, "Rock of Ages," "It Is Well," and "Have Thine Own Way Lord."

Card of Thanks.

We take this privilege to thank our many kind friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the death and burial of our dear brother, Jay Titus, and also the singers, pall bearers and especially are we grateful for the beautiful floral offerings. Signed:

CATTLE AND HOGS LOWER; SHEEP STRONG.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 17.—Chicago with 40,000 cattle, most of them fat enough for killers, put the general market in a bad position. Prices there were lower, and this decline was reflected elsewhere. Here receipts, though liberal were not excessive as the supply was evenly distributed among the various classes. The general market was steady to 25 cents lower. Hog prices were down 15 to 25 cents and at the low point of the month. Trade was active after a slow start. Sheep and lamb prices were strong to 15 cents higher.

Today's Receipts.

Receipts today were 33,000 cattle, 14,000 hogs, and 4,000 sheep, compared with 35,000 cattle, 10,000 hogs, and 4,000 sheep a week ago, and 25,700 cattle, 12,675 hogs, and 6,750 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle.

Chicago's run of 40,000 cattle, most of them in the killing classes, proved a handicap for the general trade. Prices there were not only sharply lower but trade was badly congested. Here receipts were smaller than a week ago but the market felt the effect of the Chicago decline. Most sales were 10 to 15 cents lower. Offerings of choice to prime steers were lacking. Some fairly good yearlings sold at $10.00 to $10.50 or steady. Short fed steers sold at $7.25 to $9.50 and were 15 to 25 cents down. Grass fat steers with any showing of quality were steady. The plain and ordinary classes were slightly lower. Cows and heifers were steady with last week's close and 15 to 25 cents lower than a week ago. Calves and bulls were steady.

Stockers and Feeders.

Though trade in stock and feeding cattle was slow at the start, a fair volume of trade developed at about steady prices for the better kinds, but there was a lower tendency to the plain and medium kinds. Practically all sections contributed to the supply of thin cattle.

Hogs.

With 138,500 hogs at the five western markets, 87,000 of which were in Chicago, the market was sharply lower. Here the decline was 15 to 25 cents and this loss took the market into the lowest position of the month. The top was $9.25, and bulk of sales $8.75 to $9.20. Packing sows sold at $8.25 and stock hogs and pigs $6.50 to $7.25. The general opinion is that today's heavy receipts and lower prices will check the runs the rest of this week.

Sheep and Lambs.

Trade in sheep and lambs was active at strong prices. Fed lambs sold at $14 to $14.25, or as high as any time this season. Some shorn lambs brought $11.95 and native lambs sold at $13.65 to $14. Only a few odd bunches of sheep arrived.

Horses and Mules.

Trade in horses and mules continued active at unchanged prices. The bulk of the demand is from the southern states.

OPERATION ADVISED FRIEND SAID "DON'T DO IT!"

Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound First. Proved Good Advice

Chicago, Illinois.—"Just a few lines to let you know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was married going on for three years, and went to a doctor and was taking treatments twice a week for pains every month. I used to lie in bed three or four days with them and the doctor would call and inject something into my arm to put me asleep so I would not feel the pains. At last she said I would have to be operated on if I wanted any children. Well, I just happened to go to see a friend with her first baby and I told her I was going to the hospital, and she said, 'Don't do it! You go and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you won't need any operation.' So my husband got me a bottle right away. Now I have two lovely children. Believe me, I recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman I know has any kind of female trouble. It has helped me and a lot of my friends."—"Mrs. A. McANDLESS, 1709 S. Morgan St., Chicago, Ill. TROOPS CUT WAY THROUGH JUNGLES

MAKE EPOCHAL MARCHES ACROSS MORASSES.

UNIT CROSSES ISTHMUS

Annual Report of Major-General William J. Snow Is Filed With the War Department Today.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Piercing dank jungles in the Philippines and making epochal marches across the jungles and morasses of the Isthmus of Panama provide the American artilleryman with romance and adventure even in this day of prosaic, systematized efficiency in warfare, according to the annual report of Major-General William J. Snow, Chief of Field Artillery, to the War Department.

During the last year numerous trips have been made into the jungles by the different batteries of the Fourth Field Artillery, stationed at Gatun, in the Canal Zone. One such trip constituted a crossing of the isthmus by a complete battery—the first time any unit of the American army has marched entirely across the isthmus.

The object of the trip was to determine the feasibility of transporting artillery from the Atlantic to the Pacific by means of pack transportation. The march—only sixty-five miles—was accomplished after twenty-three days of most difficult going. On some days only a few miles could be made, due to the difficult terrain and to the large amount of bridge building and trail clearing through the tangled undergrowth which had to be done by the men. Actually, they had to cut their way through the forest primeval.

In the Philippines the Twenty-fourth Field Artillery, stationed at Camp Stotsenburg, conducted extensive explorations into the unknown country in the interior to improve the artillery target range and to open a trail from Camp Stotsenburg to the west coast of the Island of Luzon. As far as known, they were the first troops to reach the summit of Mount Pinatuba.

The importance of this exploration work cannot be overestimated, according to General Snow, as it keeps the artillery in excellent condition for service. The trail also should prove of material value to commercial interests.

During the last year the Twenty-Fourth Field Artillery also completed a march over the old Government trail, known as the "Eba Trail," from Camp Stotsenburg to Olongapo, the naval station, by way of O'Donnell. Jungle growth had obliterated the old trail, and the construction of a new one was necessary.

The field artillery made good progress last year, according to the report of General Snow, but there is a need for greater attention to the organized reserves.

In event of war 20,000 field artillery officers would be needed, and only 7,889 reserve officers are now enrolled. There were 23,393 field artillery officers in service during the World War. Twenty units of the R. O. T. C. are now in operation, and during the last year 6,434 students were enrolled, an increase of nearly 400 over the preceding year.

The report also shows an increased activity in field artillery in National Guard units. Upon the outbreak of the World War there were 541 officers and 12,975 enlisted men. The expansion, as a result of the war, called for 3,247 officers and 79,917 enlisted men, and at present there are eight brigades of divisional field artillery and ten regiments of corps artillery, with a total strength of 2,159 officers and 30,209 men.

WASHINGTON SLOWLY TOWED TO ANCHORAGE.

INJUNCTION IS SOUGHT

But Government Points Out That Recent Dirarmament Conference That Huge Boat Be Destroyed.

Washington, Nov. 18.—While the battleship Washington was being slowly towed to anchorage off the Virginia coast today to await the practice gunnery that will send it to the bottom of the Atlantic, W. J. Lambert, Washington attorney, made another effort to save the big ship.

Lambert went to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals this morning and asked for a temporary injunction against Secretary of Navy Wilbur to prevent him carrying out the plan to sink the Washington.

The government contends that the scrapping of the big ship, on which thirty-five million dollars has already been spent, was decreed by the Washington disarmament conference and that the government has no choice in the matter.

2 GAME WARDENS MAKE A BIG CATCH

ARREST 13 WHO DISREGARD THE GAME LAWS.

96 HIDES CONFISCATED

John Wallace and Jasper Odell Have Been Busy in Worth and Gentry County Recently.

John Wallace of Maryville and Jasper Odell of Bigelow, deputy game wardens, have shipped ninety-six confiscated skunk, opossum, mink and raccoon hides, weighing ninety seven pounds, to the state game warden at Jefferson City, as the result of a three days' jaunt in Worth and Gentry County, starting out from here last Friday.

Thirteen arrests were made by Mr. Wallace and Mr. Odell. Four men were arraigned before the justice of peace at Grant City and the rest arraigned at Albany. Eleven of the law breakers were fined $5 and costs amounting to over $13.

Mr. Wallace said this morning that the season on fur bearing animals does not open until December 1, and wherever he finds any hunters disregarding the game laws he will enforce the law to the fullest extent. He and Mr. Odell are starting out again for Worth and Gentry counties in a clean-up. They also expect to be in Nodaway County in the near future.

The men were arraigned on Saturday and Monday and those whom the game wardens arrested are:

Chinese Smuggled in Through Rum Runners

Found in Burlap Bags and Thrown Over Side of Ship During Chase By Coast Guard.

New York, Nov. 18.—Bootlegging circles here were shocked today over a story in circulation of eleven Chinese, human contraband, who were trussed in burlap bags with weights and thrown over the side of a rum-runner during a chase by a coast guard in New York Bay.

Rum runners are turning their attention from liquor to Chinese smuggling because of the increasing hazards of the former and the profit to be made in the latter.

How Chinese City Widens Streets

Shanghai, China, Nov. 18.—Several months of propaganda work by the Chinese Red Cross, Young Men's Club and missionary organizations to have the city of Fowchow, in Szechuen province, widen the ancient streets proved woefully unsuccessful recently, and the workers were on the verge of abandoning their efforts. One night fire broke out in a temple, and within a few hours several of the principal streets were in ruins. Renewed vigor on the part of the "City Beautiful" workers has since resulted in the construction of new buildings a few feet farther back, so that the streets, once impossible to navigate without fighting your way through on foot, can now be negotiated in a rikisha.

$438 IS REPORTED THIS AFTERNOON

ANNUAL RED CROSS ROLL CALL IN CITY TODAY.

INCREASE OVER 1924

Some Ex-Service Men Unable to Help Today Will Solicit Through The City Tomorrow.

Four hundred and thirty-eight dollars was taken out in 1925 American Red Cross memberships in Maryville this morning.

Ex-service men under the chairman, John G. Mutz, were soliciting the city all day, but the greater number of the men were out this morning. All the reports on 1925 memberships collected today were not in at press time so it is expected that the total contributed by Maryville will be swelled by the time all the reports are in tonight.

Last year on the day when the city was solicited for Red Cross memberships a little more than four hundred dollars was reported in the afternoon, so the collections today compare even more favorably than a year ago.

The ex-service men have reported they did not find a large number of residents at home when they called, so it will probably be necessary to have a clean-up day. Tomorrow some ex-service men that signified their intentions of aiding in getting Red Cross memberships for 1925, will go out through the city as it was impossible for some to help today.

When all the collections are reported tomorrow from the city, and the contributions for memberships from the College and schools, the total this year will undoubtedly be larger than in 1923.

If there are any who are not seen by the ex-service men today they can leave their contributions at the Red Cross rooms in the Michau building.

The contributions today ranged from $1 to $25, but the general run was $1, which is the regulation Red Cross membership.

Democrats Will Control Legislature

On Joint Ballot the Democratic Majority Will Be Ten Votes

Jefferson City, Nov. 18—The Missouri legislature will again be controlled by the Democratic party. This is evident upon the face of complete although unofficial returns compiled by Charles W. Fear, publication clerk in the department of state.

The Democrats will have twenty-three members and the Republicans eleven in the senate. In the house the Republicans will control by the scant majority of two votes. On joint ballot the Democratic majority will be ten votes. Compilation of the official returns has not yet begun but the result is not expected to change materially Mr. Fear's figures.

With the Democrats having the balance of power on joint ballot the chance of a contest over the governership, to which Sam A. Baker of Jefferson City, Republican, apparently has been elected, is greatly strengthened.

Should Dr. A. W. Nelson, defeated Democratic candidate, contest Mr. Baker's election, the Republicans threaten to contest the election of several Democratic candidates for representative who apparently are elected only by slight majorities. In these cases the legislature must hear both contestants and canvass the returns. History does not recall an instance, however, where a minority party candidate was seated.

Won't Contest "Ma" Ferguson's Election

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 18.—The Republican party will not contest the election of Mrs. Miriam ("Ma") Ferguson, according to a formal statement today by R. B. Creager, Republican national committeeman from Texas.

While he was sending out instructions Attorney-General Stone was completing preparations to file charges against newspapers for violation of the publication restriction.

MEETS MAYSVILLE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

BOARD CONTROL MEETS AT ST. JOSEPH TODAY.

SUMMA IS INELIGIBLE

Maryville and Maysville to Play for Championship of District Either on Friday or Saturday.

(Special to Democrat-Forum).

St. Joseph, Nov. 18.—The Stanberry High School football team was declared ineligible to compete for the championship of Northwest Missouri because of the playing of Leland Summa, hight halfback, who was also declared ineligible because of playing with and against professional baseball teams, it was decided at a meeting of the board of control of the Northwest Missouri Athletic Association, held at the Hotel Robidoux, St. Joseph, this afternoon.

The board also passed a resolution declaring that Princeton used poor sportsmanship in protesting after nearly an entire game had been played with the Stanberry team.

The superintendent, principal and coach of the Stanberry team were not blamed for the playing of the ineligible man and Stanberry was reinstated in the association in good standing.

The Princeton High School forfeited its right to play in the semi-finals and therefore Maryville and Maysville will play for the championship of Northwest Missouri either Friday or Saturday of this week.

L. E. Ziegler, representing Maryville, withdrew from the conference regarding the date and place of the championship game, as he was an interested party in the controversy. This matter will be decided this afternoon but no decision had been made at press time.

In addition to Mr. Ziegler, Earl Duncan of Albany, vice-president, O. G. Sanford of Trenton, and U. L. Riley of Maitland were present at the meeting this afternoon.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 18. — The trail of progress which has discarded the horse and buggy and placed more than 15 million motor vehicles upon the public highways and increasing railroad traffic necessitating more railroad crossings make it necessary that the state governments take drastic measures for the protection of pedestrians and automobile traffic, according to opinions expressed here today at the closing session of the sixteenth annual governors' conference.

TO ARREST RAIDERS ON WATER SUPPLY

RANCHERS DEFY INJUNCTION ISSUED YESTERDAY.

LOSS $15,000 DAILY

Complaint of City of Los Angeles States That 290 Cubic Feet Per Second Are Wasted.

Independence, Calif., Nov. 18.—Warrants for the arrest of the men who Sunday seized the flood gates of the Los Angeles aqueduct may be issued today, officials of Inyo County declared.

The raiders have refused to obey the injunction issued late yesterday ordering them from the aqueduct and if they continue to defy the law, their arrest will be ordered, authorities declared.

Independence, Cal., Nov. 18.—Late yesterday Judge Dohy of the superior court of Inyo county granted an application by the city of Los Angeles for a temporary order to restrain Owens valley ranchers from interfering with the Los Angeles aqueduct. Sheriff Collins of Inyo county left at once for Long Pine to serve the order on the small army of ranchers there, which Sunday seized and opened the Alabama waste gates. The city's complaint states that the waste of water is 290 cubic feet per second and that the approximate loss is $15,000 daily. The order is returnable next Monday, Nov. 24.

The only names mentioned in the document are those of Mark Q. Waterson and W. R. McCarthy, prominent ranchers. All the others, upwards of 100 in number, come under the category of "John Doe."

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY.

STILL SUPERSTITIOUS.

A news dispatch notes that the Kern County (Calif.) Cattlemen's and Sheepmen's Association has contracted with a rainmaker for an inch and a half of rain, to be delivered between November 20 and December 20, for which $4,000 is to be paid.

While the terms of the contract are not given in detail, it would seem that the rainmaker has the long end of the bargain unless he is penalized in case of failure. Perhaps he is required to execute some hocus-pocus under the semblance of doing something to earn his money, but we imagine that the chief labor in which he'll engage will consist in hoping that nature will be kind and send along the showers in a land where moisture is too often withheld. Should the rain fall in sufficient quantity the rainmaker's purse will be replenished to the extent of a neat sum whether he exerts any influence on the situation.

A few years ago professional rainmakers had quite a vogue in some arid sections, but the country has yet to hear that any of them ever was successful in producing the desired moisture. The rain may have fallen, but that of itself would not be proof of their instrumentality—rather of their good luck in having nature coincide with their schemes of buncoing some credulous people out of good coin. Not all Americans have emerged from superstition if it is believed that man is able by incantations to coax from the sky that which nature withholds by law.

GOOD ROADS TO PUT TOWNS TO A TEST

WILL BE SURVIVAL OF FITTEST WITH COMING HARD ROADS.

ADVERTISING IS THE KEY

Stores Must Keep Pace With Advance Of Modernity, Be Better Equipped and Advertise.

Macon, Mo., Nov. 18—"With the coming of the hard road era in Missouri will come a problem of life and death to a great many towns of Missouri, unless their citizenship is far-seeing enough to prepare for the new order that will follow real highways," said Web M. Rubey, former state senator and who in his ninety active years has seen the Overland trail, the stage coach, the steamboat and the railroad development from the '50s down to date.

"It has been the way of the farmer for a great many years to trade at 'his' town, meaning the one closest to him," explained Mr. Rubey. "He would take his produce there and bring back his supplies. On the books of the firm he was a regular—a man whose trade could be calculated on year after year. His good will was an important asset to 'his' store. He never thought of going anywhere else.

Merchants Knew Their Trade

"Time was when on market day, generally Saturday, every lot in towns like Hannibal, Kirksville, Macon, Brookfield and Moberly would be packed close with teams, and the livery barns full—indicating trading folks from the surrounding country. Each town had its own circle of customers who would come in to do their trading in 'our town' as a matter of course. They never thought of driving thirty or forty miles to some other place, and the merchant, whether he advertised much or not, knew he could count on his share of the trade tributary to his town.

"The coming of the motor car changed the situation some. When the roads are in condition for a long trip the farmer and his family may decide to pass the old home town and journey into a new trading field. But this has not been the regular practice, because rains are more or less frequent and the dirt roads are a more or less unknown problem for long distance travel.

"But when the farmer, by traveling a few miles, can reach a hard-surfaced road that will make it a sure bet of his getting back in his car, rain or shine, the home town will not be limited by proximity, but where he can get, as he thinks, the best service.

More Towns to Be Rivals

"For instance, with a concrete road covering the thirty-five miles between Macon and Brookfield, or the twenty-two miles to Moberly, those towns instantly become rivals for the trade. If a farmer living on the highways near Brookfield thinks he can get a better line of supplies at Macon the thirty miles extra travel distance will mean nothing to him in the way of extra cost and time. It will be practically as easy to go to one place as the other. The same rule obtains, of course, to the farmer living near Macon who may be apprised by advertising that he can come nearer getting what he wants at Brookfield.

"The merchants of the towns now well known will have to plan for business on a larger scale than they ever did before, or they will go down. All the towns on the hard-surfaced highways will be competitors, because all the farmers living on or adjacent to them will be potential customers.

"I'm not a merchant, but I've observed the changing conditions in this state due to changes in transportation methods for sixty years or better. Missouri is full of 'lost towns' towns busy and prosperous and well known when I was a boy. I thought they'd grow up into great cities. Instead they were killed by competition with towns that in many cases were only a few miles away, and were sneered at as hamlets. But these hamlets had live men in them who knew what the people wanted, and who kept ahead of the times.

Advertising is the Key.

"But advertising as a town booster was hardly known then. The man who advertised extensively was a Yankee, a man who tooted his own horn, and an object of suspicion. Today advertising is the key that unlocks the treasure house, and makes a town grow large and important, and I'm thinking that it's going to be a big factor when these hard roads are in commission.

"The women folks are the ones who are the most discriminating judges as to the best place to trade. They know all about the various characters of garments for the whole household and what they ought to cost. And they are going to the towns where their money will go farthest, considering quality of goods. They'll not stop at the county line, but keep on going until they reach the store that has what they want.

"I think the result will be larger and better-equipped stores, and a character of service that admits of no criticism. New methods of business will meet the new facility of travel, and as a whole our towns will be better, busier and more prosperous."

New High Gasoline Consumption Record

THE Bureau of Mines (Washington, D.C.) places the domestic consumption of gasoline for August, 1924, at 819,467,892 gallons, an increase over July consumption of 22,001,302 gallons and the highest monthly consumption of gasoline ever reached in the United States.

Notwithstanding this unusual demand, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been able to keep the motorist of the Middle West constantly supplied with gasoline. This is the direct result of strict economy in production and the uninterrupted operation of a modern system of distribution.

The new high gasoline consumption record of August tells of hundreds of small business organizations made efficient by means of the automobile and an abundance of standard quality gasoline. It tells of thousands of families who have enjoyed healthful outings at minimum cost. It tells of hundreds of thousands of city children benefited by country air, because motor transportation carried them into open spaces at a trifling charge.

Giving people what they want, at a price they easily can afford to pay, is in itself a valuable service. This service is rendered to society by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Few of the hundreds of thousands of people who profit daily by the abundance and the wide distribution of gasoline, consider the intricate industrial problems solved before this service could be rendered. They are apt to think of gasoline as yielded freely by nature; a generous, unceasing gift to man.

On the contrary, no matter how freely crude oil is produced by nature, without the aid of science it does not yield the tremendous quantities of gasoline needed to supply the demand.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) by originating processes which vastly increase the percentage of gasoline recovered from crude oil, serves mankind by helping to keep the supply equal to the demand. By devising a comprehensive distribution system and maintaining it in the face of every obstacle, this Company is able to make gasoline available to millions who could not afford to have the fuel shipped to them individually. Gasoline is as accessible to the farmers of the Middle West as it is to the city dweller.

Somerville Preparing for Demonstrations

Returns From State Teachers Meeting—Is Succeeded as Head Rural Department By a Woman.

Leslie G. Somerville, county superintendent of schools, is back at his office again after attending the state teachers association at Kansas City. Mr. Somerville is now planning for the demonstration schools that will be conducted in this county in the next two weeks.

For two years Mr. Somerville was in charge of the rural department of the state teachers meetings. This year, however, the county superintendent of Mississippi County was elected to succeed him.

Mr. Somerville was of the opinion that the last teachers meeting was the best ever held and in speaking of the Nodaway County people that spoke, especially mentioned the address delivered by Roy Lippman, president of the county Farm Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lowry of Grant City are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. J. S. Clark, and his mother, Mrs. B. F. Lowry, who is seriously ill at the Clark home. Mrs. Lowry's condition remains unchanged.

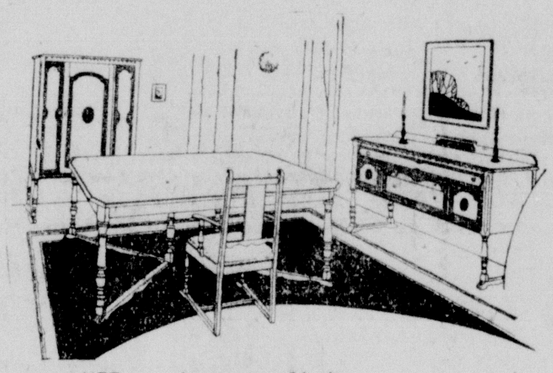
"Where Your Patronage Is Appreciated"



'How is it going to look'

"How is our dining room going to look for Thanksgiving and the coming holidays?"

That is the question being asked right now in many families.

It is all a question of how YOU WANT your dining room to look. As long as it is possible to avail yourself of a credit service that enables you to pay in 30 to 60 days, or in six months or twelve months, why not get that new suite, or rug or single piece, or whatever it may be that is needed to bring your dining room furnishings up to date?

We never had a finer showing of dining room furniture or dining room rugs than we have right now. And, prices have not been so reasonable for years.

Take a good survey of your dining room, and than take a walk through our displays. We believe you're sure to find just what you want here.

P. S. Don't forget that you can trade in your no-longer-wanted dining room furniture.

Rheumatism

"Yes! it's all gone."

DO NOT close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. You can get rid of your rheumatism by building up your blood power. It is a fact that rheumatism means "blood poverty." It is a fact with the increase of red cells in your blood, impurities are destroyed. It is a fact that S.S.S. will help Nature build these red-blood-cells! S.S.S. is one of the most powerful blood cleansers in existence. Its results in thousands of rheumatic cases have been nothing short of amazing! The medicinal ingredients of S.S.S. are purely vegetable. This is very important to remember! What can be more inspiring, more wonderful than to see the shackles of pain released from your struggling body, swellings, lingering pains, stiffness of joints and muscles all disappear; your stomach made strong; your face pink with the old sweetheart glow, your blood enriched and your cheeks more plump as they used to be. You can do it! Take S.S.S., the great destroyer of rheumatic impurities.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

He's Going to Fish Until He Is Good and Tired

"I'm going fishing the day after I get out of this office and fish until I'm tired," so said Augustus Romasser this morning, deputy sheriff for the last four years.

Mr. Romasser said that he was through with the work in the sheriff's office, the day that the present sheriff, Steve Roach's term expires and the sheriff-elect, L. B. Campbell goes into office, which is January 1.

However, Mr. Romasser will continue to be in the public eye, as he is a city commissioner, who went into office a year ago last April and which term does not expire until April, 1925.

If Mr. Romasser goes fishing and stays until he gets "good and tired of it" he may be gone for several months, as last summer he went up into Northern Minnesota on a fishing trip and was away a month, coming back because official duties required his presence here.

Advice might be given to Mr. Romasser to take his high powered rifle along to kill the polar bears that might pester him while he is fishing through the ice, and also to furnish him with something to eat.

PARIS STYLE HINTS.
By ALICE LANGELIER.
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

Paris, Nov. 18.—Clothes to match the Autumn tints are being worn on the boulevards these frosty days. Dame Fashion has ordered bright things for women this year.

Colors are such that they seem like reflections from the Autumn woods. Even black is gay this season—trimmed with thin red lines or a band of mosiac of different kinds and colors of fur. A black satin afternoon dress is slashed with cerise, and a black georgette evening coat is bordered with rose leaves, in shaded pinks, and worn over a black gown, with painted roses.

Raspberry, beige and brown, with orange in one piece of material, makes an amusing combination for sports costumes, which promise to be particularly gay this Winter. Dull green, with gray, rust and yellow, makes a charming skating costume that comes from Lucile. The coat is almost always made of one major color and the dress of another.

Mauve is the favorite shade of one of the largest designers. There are some delightful evening dresses and capes in mauve and silver, with flowers in deeper shades. Another mauve scheme is in velvet, white fur, gold lace and just a touch of brilliant Chinese embroidery.

Evening dresses are especially brilliant. A cerise crepe de Chine frock has a circular skirt covered with narrow, pleated ruffles; and a periwinkle blue crepe gown is embroidered in silver. Gold embroideries, gold beading and gold brocades are extremely popular. Chantal is showing a frock in gold tulle, embroidered in many shades of green and lavender. One of her special features is the long scarf of color on a black and white gown. It flows from the shoulders quite straight and narrow, like a little cloud.

White Cross Sunday to Be Observed at Elmo

By Edgar O. Wells, Minister.

Next Sunday, November 23, will be American White Cross Sunday, at which time our Methodism will bring the interests of our hospital interests all over the United States will be represented by our pastors, and an offering will be taken for them. Can you think of anything that could be better represent the work of our Master, when he was here upon earth than this? He said heal the sick. * * * Freely ye have received, freely give," and our Missouri Methodist hospital St. Joseph, Mo., is doing this very work, and while it is under the auspices of our church, it is in no sense whatever, sectarian. So that we may surely say, this is a work in which everybody may bear a part. The theme of the sermon will be, "One Day of Healing in the Life of Jesus."

Remember, that the evening service hour is now 7 p. m. and there will be fifteen minutes of song preceding the sermon, the theme of which will be, "Builders of Life for Eternity." There were twenty-five or thirty young people in our congregations last Sunday, and the night sermon will be especially addressed to them. When a church loses the young life out of its pews, it is practically dead, and its doors will close sooner or later, and when its membership pays more attention to the number of its automobiles than it does to its baby carriages, it will soon have neither the one or the other in sight from its windows. Fathers and mothers, your babies and little children are in the kingdom, and there entitled to baptism, and if you want them baptised by either form, we will gladly dedicate them to Christ, by putting His mark of holiness upon them.

OBITUARY.

Jay Titus was born in Richland County, Wis., Oct. 29, 1861, and departed this life at his home three miles southeast of Arkoe, Mo., Nov. 14, 1924, age 63 years. He came to Nodaway County from his native state in 1869, and had made his home here ever since. He was an unmarried man. It was a great surprise to the entire neighborhood of the sudden death of the deceased, as he had been looked upon a rugged, robust man of excellent health, and if he ever complained no one seemed to know it. He was among the early pioneers of the country, and was looked upon as a good clean moral citizen of good repute. No one ever appealed to Jay Titus in vain, if they were needy. He supported every good cause. In all of his dealings he exercised the most conscientious scruples. He was a man among men, an affectionate brother, and a congenial neighbor. Besides his sister, Mrs. F. E. Blauvelt, Barnard, Mo., he leaves to mourn, one brother, Lee Titus, Ashton, S. D., three nieces and six nephews, besides other relatives, as well as a host of friends. The funeral service was conducted from the Arkoe Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, Nov. 16, at 2:30, in the presence of a large discourse of relatives and friends. Rev. Arthur S. Olsen, a former pastor of Grant City, Mo., conducted the service. Interment was in the Maryville cemetery.

The pall bearers were: Geo. and Wm. Chambers, John Bloom, Ret Corrough, and Harry and Cole Yiesley. The quartet composed of Mrs. Dwight Swinford, J. E. Wyatt, and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Corrough, sang, "Rock of Ages," "It Is Well," and "Have Thine Own Way Lord."

CATTLE AND HOGS LOWER; SHEEP STRONG.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 17.—Chicago with 40,000 cattle, most of them fat enough for killers, put the general market in a bad position. Prices there were lower, and this decline was reflected elsewhere. Here receipts, though liberal were not excessive as the supply was evenly distributed among the various classes. The general market was steady to 25 cents lower. Hog prices were down 15 to 25 cents and at the low point of the month. Trade was active after a slow start. Sheep and lamb prices were strong to 15 cents higher.

Today's Receipts.

Receipts today were 33,000 cattle, 14,000 hogs, and 4,000 sheep, compared with 35,000 cattle, 10,000 hogs, and 4,000 sheep a week ago, and 25,700 cattle, 12,675 hogs, and 6,750 sheep a year ago.

Beef Cattle.

Chicago's run of 40,000 cattle, most of them in the killing classes, proved a handicap for the general trade. Prices there were not only sharply lower but trade was badly congested. Here receipts were smaller than a week ago but the market felt the effect of the Chicago decline. Most sales were 10 to 15 cents lower. Offerings of choice to prime steers were lacking. Some fairly good yearlings sold at $10.00 to $10.50 or steady. Short fed steers sold at $7.25 to $9.50 and were 15 to 25 cents down. Grass fat steers with any showing of quality were steady. The plain and ordinary classes were slightly lower. Cows and heifers were steady with last week's close and 15 to 25 cents lower than a week ago. Calves and bulls were steady.

Stockers and Feeders.

Though trade in stock and feeding cattle was slow at the start, a fair volume of trade developed at about steady prices for the better kinds, but there was a lower tendency to the plain and medium kinds. Practically all sections contributed to the supply of thin cattle.

Hogs.

With 138,500 hogs at the five western markets, 87,000 of which were in Chicago, the market was sharply lower. Here the decline was 15 to 25 cents and this loss took the market into the lowest position of the month. The top was $9.25, and bulk of sales $8.75 to $9.20. Packing sows sold at $8.25 and stock hogs and pigs $6.50 to $7.25. The general opinion is that today's heavy receipts and lower prices will check the runs the rest of this week.

Sheep and Lambs.

Trade in sheep and lambs was active at strong prices. Fed lambs sold at $14 to $14.25, or as high as any time this season. Some shorn lambs brought $11.95 and native lambs sold at $13.65 to $14. Only a few odd bunches of sheep arrived.

Horses and Mules.

Trade in horses and mules continued active at unchanged prices. The bulk of the demand is from the southern states.

OPERATION ADVISED FRIEND SAID "DON'T DO IT!"

Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound First. Proved Good Advice

Chicago, Illinois.—"Just a few lines to let you know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I was married going on for three years, and went to a doctor and was taking treatments twice a week for pains every month. I used to lie in bed three or four days with them and the doctor would call and inject something into my arm to put me asleep so I would not feel the pains. At last she said I would have to be operated on if I wanted any children. Well, I just happened to go to see a friend with her first baby and I told her I was going to the hospital, and she said, 'Don't do it! You go and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you won't need any operation.' So my husband got me a bottle right away. Now I have two lovely children. Believe me, I recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman I know has any kind of female trouble. It has helped me and a lot of my friends."—"Mrs. A. McANDLESS, 1709 S. Morgan St., Chicago, Ill. TROOPS CUT WAY THROUGH JUNGLES

MAKE EPOCHAL MARCHES ACROSS MORASSES.

UNIT CROSSES ISTHMUS

Annual Report of Major-General William J. Snow Is Filed With the War Department Today.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Piercing dank jungles in the Philippines and making epochal marches across the jungles and morasses of the Isthmus of Panama provide the American artilleryman with romance and adventure even in this day of prosaic, systematized efficiency in warfare, according to the annual report of Major-General William J. Snow, Chief of Field Artillery, to the War Department.

During the last year numerous trips have been made into the jungles by the different batteries of the Fourth Field Artillery, stationed at Gatun, in the Canal Zone. One such trip constituted a crossing of the isthmus by a complete battery—the first time any unit of the American army has marched entirely across the isthmus.

The object of the trip was to determine the feasibility of transporting artillery from the Atlantic to the Pacific by means of pack transportation. The march—only sixty-five miles—was accomplished after twenty-three days of most difficult going. On some days only a few miles could be made, due to the difficult terrain and to the large amount of bridge building and trail clearing through the tangled undergrowth which had to be done by the men. Actually, they had to cut their way through the forest primeval.

In the Philippines the Twenty-fourth Field Artillery, stationed at Camp Stotsenburg, conducted extensive explorations into the unknown country in the interior to improve the artillery target range and to open a trail from Camp Stotsenburg to the west coast of the Island of Luzon. As far as known, they were the first troops to reach the summit of Mount Pinatuba.

The importance of this exploration work cannot be overestimated, according to General Snow, as it keeps the artillery in excellent condition for service. The trail also should prove of material value to commercial interests.

During the last year the Twenty-Fourth Field Artillery also completed a march over the old Government trail, known as the "Eba Trail," from Camp Stotsenburg to Olongapo, the naval station, by way of O'Donnell. Jungle growth had obliterated the old trail, and the construction of a new one was necessary.

The field artillery made good progress last year, according to the report of General Snow, but there is a need for greater attention to the organized reserves.

In event of war 20,000 field artillery officers would be needed, and only 7,889 reserve officers are now enrolled. There were 23,393 field artillery officers in service during the World War. Twenty units of the R. O. T. C. are now in operation, and during the last year 6,434 students were enrolled, an increase of nearly 400 over the preceding year.

The report also shows an increased activity in field artillery in National Guard units. Upon the outbreak of the World War there were 541 officers and 12,975 enlisted men. The expansion, as a result of the war, called for 3,247 officers and 79,917 enlisted men, and at present there are eight brigades of divisional field artillery and ten regiments of corps artillery, with a total strength of 2,159 officers and 30,209 men.
